1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: a scrubbing product wherein the attachment structure comprises stitching, a scrubbing product wherein the attachment structure comprises point bonds and a scrubbing product wherein the attachment structure comprises a hook and loop fastener.

2. The application further contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: a scrubbing product wherein the liquid absorbent substrate comprises a sponge, where the liquid absorbent substrate comprises a foam, where the liquid absorbent substrate comprises a nonwoven material, where the liquid absorbent material comprises a tissue laminate, where the liquid absorbent substrate comprises an airlaid web, where the liquid absorbent substrate comprises a coform and wherein the liquid absorbent substrate comprises a paper web.

3. The application further contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of claimed invention: a scrubbing product wherein the abrasive substrate comprises a wrapped configuration, wherein the abrasive structure comprises an endless loop defining a perforation line; and wherein the abrasive structure comprises a spiral configuration.

Art Unit: 1771

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim
